NOTES

- Eagles Series—Name changed to New Eagle Series without renumbering.
 Laura Series—Sometimes advertised as Laura Library.
 Magnet Library—First called Magnet Detective Library, later name changed to New Magnet Library without renumbering.
 Medal Library—Name changed to New Medal Library without renumbering.
 My Queen—Story Paper size beginning with No. 32.
 New York Weekly—Later numbers called New York Welcome.
 Nick Carter Weekly—Also called New Nick Carter Weekly.
 People's Five Cent Novelettes—Published under the name of J. W. Mangle Co. with Okie, Dayton and Jones, Publishers' Agents as Distributors. This apparently was an attempt to undercut Beadles Dime Novels.

NEWSY NEWS

by Ralph F. Cummings
Fisherville, Mass.

Talk about novel strikes, George French run into a nice lot of James Boys Stories and N. Y. Detective Libraries not too long ago. Clyde Wakefield landed an assortment, so you see, there is some around, if you are lucky enough to find them.

Carl Linville was down to his sisters down in Florida for over a week along in early June, or the last of May. He enjoyed it very much, as the old asthma has been bothering him a lot back a long. Too bad there isn't a cure of some kind for it.

Well, pards, how many of you have sent in a dollar to E. T. LeBlanc, 87 School St., Fall River, Mass. for a 24-page Roundup, or more if we can get it, just think, the September issue isn't too far off, and we do want at least a 24-page Roundup anniversary No. So won't you help fellows. $1.00 isn't too much, as we throw it away on a few glasses of beer or cigarettes and think nothing of it, so let's send in $1.00 to Eddie pards, for he needs your support in getting it out, or even $2.00 wouldn't break us, if we could get a larger number, would it?

Think it over quickly and send in your check or M.O. today right away. Please, before it's too late!

Wallace H. Waldrop of Greenville, S. C. loves cocoanut pie. Early in June he had a nice piece of it, and before he was done with it, it cost him over $100.00 as he had one of the worst cases of food poisoning that he ever had. He thought sure he was a goner. That piece of cocoanut pie was sure costly.

June 10th I had two visitors—E. Marvin Smith, Calera High School, Calera, Ala., came up to see me in the morning, and around noontime (12 A.M.) Rev. Don L. Steinhauer drove in. They met for the first time, here, and they enjoyed their visits too. Marvin was able to find a number of his Wall St. Story wants in both Fame & Fortune and Work & Win, while the Reverend was able to get a number of his wants too. We aim to please everyone we can!

June 1st—Peter Scallo of Norwood, Mass., was here, and we dug out a number of his wants too. All very fine fellows.

Both Eli Messier and Clyde Wakefield have been down.

3 men from town here, asked me to make a 4th in a car on a trip down to Plymouth, Mass., about 70 miles from here, to see the Mayflower II come in. so down we went, and watched it come across the bay from Providencetown (24 miles) to Plymouth. Was quite a sight to see.

Charles Duprez expects to have an article in News From Home before long, so we'll all be on the lookout for it Pard.

It's nearly 100 in the shade up here, hot everywhere, I guess.

George Sahr of Kenosha, Wisc., writes that what he likes about the Old Boys Star Libraries, also N. Y. Detective, the stories are complete and not all cut to pieces, like they are later on in the colored weeklies.

Will the party in England write to my address at top of this page, and let me know what I owe him for the Collectors Miscellanys he sent me 3 or 4 months ago? I can't find his letter to save me, so let me know. sorry this happened.

Lou Kohrt reports that his wife is beginning to feel ever so much better, since she went to the hospital for an operation April 23rd. She came home May 13th from a tumor operation, and she is now able to get up and around and we all hope she'll improve, and to continue more than ever hereafter, and that it won't be long that she'll feel like a million.

Lou is interested in the 2d "Boys Magazine," published in England in the 1920's to 1930's, who has copies for sale? Lou's address is 3749 Rob-inhood St., Houston 5, Texas.

Peter Scallo of Norwood, Mass. was here Sat. July 13th. Ed. LeBlanc of Fall River, Mass. was also here July 14th, but I wasn't at home, got my signals crossed, I guess, but some days later I did see him, also Eli Messier on July 23rd.
